BLOOMFIELD COLLEGE IS CELEBRATING 150 YEARS!

Our special offering this month will help support the work of the Bloomfield College Chaplain's Office, which is responsible for nurturing the spiritual growth of the students and faculty at this historically Presbyterian college. Your donation will help make possible a variety of activities, programs, and classes related to the understanding and appreciation of diverse cultures and beliefs, the examination of personal values, the pursuit of justice and contributions to the common good. The Chaplain's Office hosts an annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., lecture, a religion and culture series, bible study, interfaith gatherings and sponsors mission trips. Please consider lending your support to the Chaplaincy Program's important work as the college moves forward into its next 150 years of service to students and the community.

BOOK GROUP

Our once a month Monday evening book group will meet again TOMORROW (July 16) at 7:30 PM. We will meet in the education building. Our book this year is The Discipline of Grace: God's Role and Our Role in the Pursuit of Holiness by Jerry Bridges. On July 16, we will discuss chapter 12 "The Discipline of Watching" and chapter 13 "The Discipline of Adversity." After this meeting, we will resume again in September with a new book. If you have any questions or want to get your own copy of our book, please contact Glenn Maciag. All are welcome to join us!

THRIFT SHOP

The Thrift Shop is still looking for volunteers to help with preparing for our fall/winter season opening. Did you know that from September 2017 to June 2018 the Thrift Shop generated $8,519.35 in sales and this was in spite of being closed for a total of 26 days mostly due to weather. We were able to write a check to the church for $10,000 in January of this year to be used for capital improvements. So let Marlene in the church office know when you can lend a helping hand. Let's make this coming season better than last.
